Whate'er their various wants require, The LORD preserves all those with care
With open hand HE gives; Whom grateful Love employs;
And so fullfills the just desire But Sinners, who His vengeance dare,
Of ev'ry thing that lives With dreadful wrath destroys.

The LORD their lives, with blessings crown'd,

And disappoint the will of those
Who seek to do them wrong.

If they in languishing estate
Opprest with Sickness lie;

And inward Strength supply.

Let therefore God our gracious LORD,
From Age to Age be blest;
And all the People's glad applause,

When Thou, O LORD, shalt stand disclos'd

 But Thou hast told the troubled Mind

 To make her Pardon sure.

For He's the LORD supremely good,

His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

In Thee I put my sted-fast trust; Defend me, LORD, from shame; In-cline thine ear, and save my Soul; For righteous is thy Name.

Be Thou my strong abiding place,
 To which I may resort;
 'Tis Thy decree that keeps me safe;
 Thou art my Rock and Fort.

Thy constant care did safely guard
 My tender infant days;
 Thou took'st me from my Mother's womb,
 To sing thy constant praise.

Reject not then Thy Servant, LORD,
 When I with age decay;
 Forsake me not, when worn with years,
 My vigour fades away.
